Kurzbeschreibung

Unwind, laugh, cry ... but feel uplifted with this bittersweet love story. Perfect for the fans of Jo-Jo Moyes and Marian Keyes. So what would you do if your 'happy ever after' was stolen from you? Colm strolled into my life fifteen years ago. If there's ever such a thing as love at first sight, that was it for us both. A few weeks later we married, celebrating with those who cared, ignoring the raised eyebrows of the cynics. We knew better. This was going to be forever. The dream come true. The perfect ending. Until it wasn't. Because a couple of months ago everything changed. We discovered a devastating truth, one that blew away our future and forced us to revisit our past, to test the bonds that were perhaps more fragile than they seemed. So now I ask you again, what would you do if your 'happy ever after' was taken from you? Because this is what I did. I'm Shauna. And this is the Story of Our Life... What readers are saying about The Story of our Life: 'This will touch your heart, it'll make you laugh and weep.' 'gripping and incredibly moving' 'beautiful and emotive' 'I'd highly recommend to anyone who loves a real emotional rollercoaster.' 'beautiful, moving and touched with gentle humour' 'Deeply moving, insightful, and sweet.' Praise for Shari Low: 'Shari Low writes with humour and skill about the complicated subtleties of adult relationships' Dorothy Koomson. 'Great fun from start to finish' Jenny Colgan. Pressestimmen

The story of what Shauna did when she discovered that her husband had slept with another woman. Shari Low writes a weekly opinion column and a Book Club page for the Daily Record. The latter is her dream job because it means she gets to lie on the sofa with the latest Harlan Coben novel and call it work. Over the years, Shari has decamped to Shanghai, Hong Kong, New York, London and LA, but now lives in Glasgow. Thankfully, she has been married to a very laid-back guy for twenty three years and has two athletic sons, aged 14 and 15, who think she's fairly embarrassing, except when they need a lift somewhere. For this reason, she regularly writes while sitting in sports centre car parks drinking coffee from a styrofoam cup. 'I am going to devour everything this author has written! I loved this book' This Old Book Bag. 'Not your typical love story. Boy does not meet girl, get married, have 2.5 kids and live happily ever after. No, this is real and raw, yet it is still a touching love story' Novel Gossip. 'Heart-warming story that reminds you how precious life is' Natasha Potter, NetGalley. 'I LOVED this book! ... I look forward to more books from this author - she spoke to my heart!' Angie Pyles, NetGalley. 'A very moving read ... I will definitely read more from Shari Low' Laurel Cherkas, NetGalley. 'Deeply moving, insightful and sweet' What's Better Than Books? 'Brilliant ... The writing is beautiful and emotive' Rachel's Random Reads. 'A beautiful, grown-up story from such a warm and very talented writer. I absolutely loved both the story and the very human couple at the heart of it' Carmen Reid. 'A lovely, bitter-sweet romantic story that really tugged on my heartstrings' Michelle Vamvas, NetGalley. 'It takes a special kind of author to draw you in and Shari Low has done it with this book ... I can't wait for more from this author' Sarah Kenney, NetGalley. 'It had everything: friendship, tears, laughter. Believe me, you will not want to put it down. Waterproof mascara on the commute a must!' Tracy Ford, The Reading Shed. 'The storytelling is beautiful, moving and touched with gentle humour' Joan Hill, NetGalley. 'Great story, I thoroughly enjoyed it' Colette 'Ann' Trainor, NetGalley. 'Such an emotional book' Meredith Willey, NetGalley. 'Recommended for anyone who is looking for a good beach read' Susan Schofield, LibraryThing. 'A great read - lots of twists and turns in this emotional book ... you will be engrossed!' Maria MacKenzie, NetGalley. 'Not the standard chicklit - this has a more serious tone ... a novel about missed chances, bad choices, and making the best of things' Kathleen Grey, NetGalley. 'It will keep your attention and you won't be sorry that you picked it up' Megan Temple, NetGalley. 'Laugh, cry and all the emotions in between ... Lovely book' Janet Purvis, NetGalley. 'Vivid page-turner' Sparkly Word. Kurzbeschreibung
